Yes ●	Aspect Issues and Achievements The Council continues to work with partners at Vivid Homes, to consider potential developments that would suit the Aspect model. Following the creation of Fareham Housing and the abolition of the HRA borrowing cap, new housing schemes have been prioritised for delivery within the HRA and no new sites have been brought forward as Aspect projects. The Aspect model is still recognised as a potential mechanism for delivering affordable homes within the Council's Affordable Housing Strategy, and officers are keeping this under review as larger scale schemes are identified.	Andy Wannell Department of the Deputy Chief Executive Officer	Commenced 2017			●

Yes ●	Hampshire Children's Trust Fareham Local Children's Partnership (LCP) Issues and Achievements Fareham Local Children's Partnership is represented by the Community Safety Manager to cover community safety, Prevent and safeguarding. The partnership has sporadic attendance at meetings and requires support to set priorities for young people in Fareham. The funding allocation from HCC has slowly decreased and this year's 0-19 grants were allocated with FBC supporting voluntary sector providers in delivering initiatives like the detached youth service which compliments the CSP priorities and is tasked via FBC's monthly Partnership Action Group. There are initial conversations about merging the Community Safety and Local Children's Partnerships.	Narinder Bains Community Safety	Children Act 2004 (changed to less significant March 2016)			●
Yes ●	Wayfarer Partnership Issues and Achievements The partnership is a consortium of 17 registered housing providers. It provides guidance on Homes England grant funding for new affordable home delivery and a platform for the grant application process, as well as support/guidance on Homes England audit requirements. Additionally, it provides significant efficiency saving opportunities for architect and employer agent services through framework agreements. The partnership continues to perform well.	Andy Wannell / Robyn Lyons Fareham Housing	November 2013			●
