YOUR COMMENTS ON THE CASE

I have had the pleasure of visiting this venue on several occasions. The performances are affordable for seniors such as myself and are always excellent. A lovely theatre within easy travelling distance. It provides training opportunities for aspiring drama students and gives social opportunities for like minded youngsters and adults alike. Why on earth with so many positive additions to the community would anyone want to close it down. There is free car parking opposite at the garden centre and Holiday Inn within easy walking distance, but the council owned land surrounding The Arden could be made available to lease or purchase for car parking. Why is it being withheld? The venue is the most comfortable of all the local theatres with spacious seating ,yet another plus, encouraging the elderly and infirm to their performances who might otherwise be prohibited. All in all, this is such a fantastic theatre with joyous enthusiam amongst all the staff and preformers which transcends to the audience. What a travisty if it were forced to close. It is even self funding! Lets see some common sense and allow this 'Performing Gem' to continue with its fine entertainment and be proud of its achievements and service to the Community.
