YOUR COMMENTS ON THE CASE

As a Fareham resident since 1978, I have watched the decline in the town centre shops, the road maintenance ( potholes), the general state of repair and maintenance of pavements and community areas, increased dog fouling, increased alcohol and tobacco/vaping clearly on show(especially at checkout stations in supermarkets where children queue with their parents/guardians), in short a decline in general standards. We won't even mention crime figures. I am therefore astonished that FBC, can afford, what must be a colossal legal burden chasing Titchfield Festival Theatre because of a change of usage that wasn't sanctioned. You are obviously assuming that you will win the appeal and that legal costs will fall to TFT. My advice is to not count your chickens before they hatch. Embrace TFT, share with them the experience and professionalism they have. Let the entrepreneur team who will be running Fareham Live be encouraged to work with Titchfield. Don't be small minded and shallow because there are many Fareham/Titchfield/ Whitely /Sarisbury/Segensworth/Bursledon, to name but a few local areas who embrace Titchfield Festival Theatre as regular patrons. If you are using parking as a swagger stick fb, allow TFT to rent or purchase the adjacent field. For some reason FBC is set against TFT and I don't know why. Would you care to explain?
