YOUR COMMENTS ON THE CASE

We moved to Titchfield in 2015 and one of the first things we did was to go to the Titchfield Festival Theatre to see a performance. At that time we sat in a huge cold room (the old sail locker) on uncomfortable chairs to watch Arms and The Man. Since then the theatre has gone from strength to strength providing wonderful entertainment to local people and to a lot of people who travel some distance to attend. I agree that the parking is an issue, however there are solutions which either FBC or HCC or Highways see fit to ignore. I think the closure of any part of this theatre would be a great shame and a great loss to the community.
