YOUR COMMENTS ON THE CASE

TFT have for many years provided a Great local facility of entertainment. They are self funding and not reliant on national or local funding.

They give opportunities for young people to express themselves through Drama, and provide links and contacts for their vocational ambitions.

They have built a fantastic theatre facility in St Margarets Road with Zero cost to the tax payers.I cannot think why the Council are so opposed to this.

Maybe we should look more deeply into the Thorngate Hall redevelopment?
