YOUR COMMENTS ON THE CASE

I strongly believe in the advantages that Titchfield Festival Theatre offers to young people in particular to be able to take part in singing drama and acting to complement their general education. The future of Fareham depends on children and adults having facilities that enable their minds to develop in a safe environment which is well run and organized. Without this opportunity there is the risk that children and adults are left with nothing good to do leading to a downward social spiral into bad behaviours and crime. Titchfield Festival Theatre must be supported by FAREHAM Borough council in the best possible way not blocked by politics of some of its members for there own personal motives and warped sense of managing community spirit and benefit for all.
