YOUR COMMENTS ON THE CASE

There should be serious consideration and support from Fareham Borough Council to help and support the Tichfield Festival Theatre for the maintaining of a strong development of Arts in the local area. Although heavy investment has been made in Fareham Live local people should have as much diversity as possible with room for both. The Council should understand what the TFT has offered since the closure and delay in development of Fernham Hall. If areas of TFT require additional funding from the council then invest from areas of wasted funding of which there are many.
