YOUR COMMENTS ON THE CASE

To whom it may concern,

I write in support of Tichfield Festival Theatre. As a local resident this venue is a vital community hub, bringing together all ages in a creative joyful space. TFT is an established business which has proven itself over the years and relies entirely on its own endeavours. Many of us local residents either work at TFT, support it or are visitors who use it on a regular basis. It provides a venue for children's work shops, youth theatre and a variety of plays for all ages. These types of activities are very much in need in the community. It's a much loved and well used venue. Fareham Boroughs reasons for acting against the theatre and the community are unfathomable. The parking is not an issue as the local hotel is well used and has plenty of spaces and the new theatre sits within an existing building. Fareham Boroughs desire to see the community theatre fail is both upsetting and unconscionable. Please protect and save our community space and help a much loved local venue stay viable.
