YOUR COMMENTS ON THE CASE

I fully support Titchfield festival theatre and the expansion. This is a well-loved theatre, providing excellent in-expensive opportunities to children, young people and adults in our community. This theatre expansion has provided much needed facilities, available to all and I ask the council to consider the positive effect the theatre has on patrons community, mental health and education. Titchfield festival theatre needs the expansion to ensure it continues to offer this needed service to as many people in the community as possible - not just those involved in the theatre, but also in the audience.
