YOUR COMMENTS ON THE CASE

The TFT/Arden theatre is local but more importantly in these current times affordable. All other theatres are just too expensive to attend. Our family went there three times over the festive period, tickets on average £9-£12, and the shows so much fun for all. This theatre is no threat to the new one being built in fareham. It cost the council nothing to maintain as all monies is reinvested into the theatre. Please keep it open for future productions, generations of children and families.
