YOUR COMMENTS ON THE CASE

My husband & I have frequented the Titchfield Theatre many times since 2018, and are always thoroughly impressed with the performances, and service the staff give. The theatre is affordable, easy to reach, and more intermit than other larger theatres which only offer professional performances - which means we can afford to treat ourselves to a live performance more regularly. The new Arden Theatre is still intermit, and allows bigger shows to be performed, and we have attended three performances since it has opened so far - all have been brilliant! What an amazing job all involved did to to perform the Christmas concert, and Pantomime (of which , and we also enjoyed The Addams Family their first show in the Arden. What complete dedication all involved in the Titchfield Theatre have, and we always feel so welcome - like family. People who create wonderful places like this should be given a medal and supported by their community and all involved in the council. Councillors are voted in to work on behalf of their communities not against them, and should encourage and support wonderful initiatives like the Titchfield Theatre. Let's all work together and support The Titchfield Theatre.
