YOUR COMMENTS ON THE CASE

Tichfield Festival Theatre has provided entertainment for local people for many , many years . We have seen it grown from small beginnings to its present impressive theatre in St Margreys Lane. This has been achieved while being unfunded by any grants . That Fareham Borough Council is attempting to close the new Arden theatre is both shocking and uncalled for. I hope that the Planning Inspectorate come to the right decision and that finally FBC might come to its senses and support a local, community based arts venture which as well as providing affordable entertainment provides educational opportunities in the arts both for the young and the older members of our community.
