YOUR COMMENTS ON THE CASE

Titchfield Festival Theatre must be kept open at all costs, for the sake of the local community. It is not only a local employer, but provides education and entertainment for thousands. The Youth programme alone, gives potential experience to young actors, who are looking at progressing to the West End in London. It also provides work experience for school leavers who are looking to get into other aspects of theatre work e.g. back stage, tech etc. It is a reasonably priced alternative for Patrons to see professionally produced shows of all genres in the local area. It also provides an Outreach programme visiting schools and putting on entertainment for the elderly population at different Rest/Nursing Homes, for people who cannot get to the theatre themselves. This Company must not be lost.
