YOUR COMMENTS ON THE CASE

We are already losing the Fareham museum and Ashcroft Centre due to council cutbacks, so I think it is very important to keep remaining local theatres/art centres etc open. The Arden is a lovely theatre used by many local people who perhaps are unable to travel to, or afford the cost of major theatre trips. I think it is very unfair that the council are happy to let developers buy up every square foot of our open spaces for housing, which has a major impact on the lives of council tax paying residents with traffic, utilities and medical centre shortages, but feel it perfectly ok to close down a small theatre that gives pleasure to many people. Thank you.
