YOUR COMMENTS ON THE CASE

I have always enjoyed visiting the Titchfield Festival Theatre in the past. But I feel they have over-expanded with the addition of the new Arden theatre. On the one occasion that I attended a performance there the road outside was gridlocked with people attempting to find parking spaces. When we eventually managed to escape from this and park at the Holiday Inn we found ourselves forced to walk along the middle of St Margarets Lane due to cars parked on the pavement. I now feel unable to attend any performance there due to this, and I support the enforcement notice.
