

Appendix A – Proposed Memorial wording

The final wording is dependent upon the space available on the chosen memorial and the people that are selected to design and unveil it.

First World War Memorial Stone

Unveiled by the Mayor of Fareham Councillor David Norris on 4th August 2014 to commemorate the centenary of the start of the First World War.

This commemorative stone is a lasting tribute to those who lost their lives

Designed and created by (name of the designer)